

Action	Play the Attack part 1
Direction	When you hear the car horn Start reading the text below
Facilitator	The game has just finished and your team have won. (Consider mentioning that an attack could be at any point, start, during or end) You see supporters of both teams are leaving the stadium, some milling about in the sunshine, families with children and others hanging around laughing and joking. An elderly group are sitting on benches chatting. It's very busy, very crowded. All is well. Then you notice a man towing a suitcase with a child in hand. He is walking against the crowd towards the stadium. They are alone. They are focused. He stops and reaches down to the suitcase. No one notices and no one pays him any attention until he starts screaming and shouting.
Direction	There may be a slight pause When you hear the man shouting start reading the text below
Facilitator	His voice carries. People turn to look at him.
